Ad The core features of AutoCAD Activation Code are: A computerized drawing-creation program, along with editing tools A structured project-management system that ensures tasks are completed as intended A sophisticated tracking system that allows you to view the history of any component, detail, or drawing A comprehensive set of easy-to-use tools that let you draw, annotate, edit, and share drawings In addition to these core features, AutoCAD includes additional modules that help make it a full-featured CAD package. Some of these add-ons are free, and others require an AutoCAD subscription. Use the tags below to filter content on this page. Ad Drawing Tools & Rulers AutoCAD has a comprehensive set of drawing tools and rulers. Some of these tools can also be used as active drawing tools, in which case you can draw directly into the model. This works especially well when you are designing a large project, because you can simply finish one part of the drawing and then pick up where you left off on the next part. Check out the video below for a demonstration of the drawing tools and rulers in AutoCAD, as well as a look at the panning and zooming options. If you want to dive a bit deeper into the drawing tools in AutoCAD, take a look at these topics: Drawing Tools Rulers & Guides Ribbon Model Design Tools Model Space Scale & Orientation Wizards Mesh & Text Wireframes Importing & Exporting PDF DXF Shape Options Graphical Editing Selection Tools System Editor Tagged Items & Task Manager FTP Differences Between Mac & Windows Notepad Security Read all AutoCAD articles here. Ad 3D Objects AutoCAD has a full set of 3D tools that make it easy to create 3D models. These tools let you create and edit 3D objects such as axles, pipes, chairs, helmets, or whatever you need. You can draw 3D objects on any type of surface, whether it's a drafting table, the floor, or even the ceiling, or any combination of these surfaces. You can also add a lighting system to your 3

AutoCAD Architecture is a civil engineering CAD product designed for architectural, engineering, and construction (AEC) and construction management (CM) users. AutoCAD Architecture comprises a series of applications, all of which are based on the same AutoCAD AutoCAD Architecture is available in both a full commercial product edition (version 2014 and later) and as a free student edition (version 2013 and earlier). AutoCAD Architecture is also available as part of the AutoCAD LT family of products. AutoCAD Architecture is a registered trademark of Autodesk, Inc. Pricing Originally, AutoCAD was a time-based product, but now licenses can be purchased as annual or monthly subscription. AutoCAD has historically been available in three editions: AutoCAD LT, AutoCAD 2009, and AutoCAD 2010. AutoCAD LT is a more limited version of AutoCAD 2010 that is available for use on a single workstation and the price is lower than AutoCAD. AutoCAD 2009 and AutoCAD 2010 have been discontinued, as of AutoCAD 2016. AutoCAD LT is no longer available, with the company's focus shifting to AutoCAD Architecture. The subscription license for AutoCAD is either annual or monthly. The price of AutoCAD depends on the edition used: Autodesk Network Alliance AutoCAD was an Autodesk member of the AutoCAD Network Alliance, a consortium of vendors in the Autodesk product family. Top Gear: Police motorbikes A 20-year-old man has been arrested after police were called to a cinema in Blackpool last week to deal with a violent disturbance. Staff from the Cinema Club, on Harry Street, phoned police at about 12.15am on September 15 following a disturbance involving six people. A report was made and PC James Johns, a neighbour, went to the scene. He said: "I was called to a disturbance involving a group of youths shouting and swearing at each other. "When I got there the group was going through the hedge next to the cinema, where the cinema is a refuge, and the youths were swearing and using abusive language towards the refuge. "One of the members of the refuge group was visibly upset and was shouting at the group. "I then saw the group start to run away from the refuge to where I was standing. "While I was speaking to the refuge staff one of the youths ran towards me and I had to take hold of him to stop him from running." The youth then told the officer he had just come out of the cinema after he had been asked to leave. When the officer asked him where he was going, the youth allegedly told him that the officers had better get their bikes out as he was going to go and do something. The officer then saw the youth go towards a group of people who were standing on the corner of the street opposite the cinema. He allegedly went through the group and began punching a man who was on the ground. The man got up and the officer allegedly punched him again. The officer said the group of people began running towards him and he started to run towards his motorcycle, which was parked in front of the cinema. "A group of people tried to surround me and prevented me from getting on my bike," he said. "At that point I started
