In a dream, Grue had a conversation with Weaver and the Shard and learned that the true reason for the war was to make a proper being of the darkness and Shard in order to kill it and he also learned that from Spider-webs that the Shard was responsible for killing innocent boys at night. [35] The Shard was also responsible for the disappearance of Emma Frost, Kitty Pride, Toyo Harada, Hiro-Kala, and the victims of the Vault. [35] Grue awakened in Brockton Bay and attempted to contact his old team so that he could brief them on the true nature of the war. However, he was found by Cozen and Taylor, who tried to recruit him into their team. [61] The pair were successful and Grue began to lead The Flock, but without his powers they were a weaker force than they were as a team without the darkness. They later reunited with their old team who had been working with them and decided to go visit Madeline in prison where they could save her. [97] However, The Flock were captured by the Warden and left in the bay where they were to be eaten by the mysterious, indestructible giant worms, known as the Darkstalkers. [35] To conclude, a variety of musculoskeletal disorders occur in workers with low back pain and only 15% of these workers meet the accepted threshold for the diagnosis of chronic pain syndrome. Occupational illnesses in and > the workplace are rather common in many developing countries, where occupational disease and injury constitute a major health problem.
